Mysuru, May 7 (DM&MTY)- M.S. Yashas of Sadvidya High School in Mysuru has made the city proud by securing cent per cent marks (625/625) in the SSLC exam (2017-18), the results of which were announced at Bengaluru this morning.

Yashas shares the distinction with Bengaluru student K.S. Sudarshan of Holy Child English School.

The Karnataka Secondary Education Examination Board (KSEEB) declared the results of SSLC (Secondary School Leaving Certificate) exam conducted in March-April, 2018.

This year's result stands at 71.93 per cent, a 4.06 per cent increase from the previous year. In 2017, the pass percentage was 67.87%. *"Speaking to SOM, M.S. Yashas said that he was very much delighted about his achievement. "Although I had done very well in the exams, I had never expected cent per cent marks (625/625)," he said and added that after his PUC, he wants to pursue Medicine.

Yashas is the son of M.S. Shivamallappa, a non-teaching staff of JSS Medical College and Chandrakala, a home-maker, residing in Vidyaranyapuram. His elder sister M.S. Trisha, presently a II PU student at Sadvidya, had secured 90 percent in SSLC."

Forgery case: Former Mayor R.G. Narasimha Iyengar convicted

Mysuru, May 7 (KS) - The First Additional Civil Court today convicted former Mysuru Mayor R.G. Narasimha Iyengar in a forgery case.

Judge Yashwanth Kumar, who found the accused guilty of the crime, convicted the accused besides reserving the quantum of punishment later today.

The forgery case was filed by M.B. Parvathy (Madrira Tiny Bidappa) against R.G. Narasimha Iyengar.

Parvathy had moved the Court on May 9, 2008 accusing Advocate and former Mayor R.G. Narasimha Iyengar, who represented her in a case which she filed against Allahabad Bank for an unexplained withdrawal of Rs. 20,000 towards loan account, for forging her signature and encashing the cheque of Rs. 84,000 from Punjab and Sind Bank.

The Court, which admitted Parvathy's complaint, had handed over the case to K.R. Police for investigation while the cheque and other related documents were sent to Forensic Science Laboratory (FSL) which, in its report dated July 1, 2009, stated that the signature and writing behind the cheque were indeed forged.

Based on the FSL report, the K.R. Police had filed a charge sheet against Narasimha Iyengar on Jan. 7, 2010, under Sections 403, 406, 467, 468 and 471 of IPC.

The First Additional Civil Court Judge, who took up the hearing today, found the former Mayor guilty and convicted him.

Work never killed anybody

Ants and honey bees in particular and insects of all known kinds inhabiting the planet earth in general are known to be engaged on work 24x7. The denizens of the forest too work in order to catch their prey for assuaging hunger before taking it easy until it is time to do it again subsequently. The option of not to be busy with any work and yet survive, unarguably, is exercised by human beings under different situations that provides for that option, marking those who are in this privileged bracket as idle or lazy. Further, the duty-bound home-maker and the army of civic workers keeping the city environs free of dirt generated by its citizens not only have the luxury of being lazy but also get noticed no sooner than abstaining from work, read work as physical labour. In this context, the claim of a VVIP politician of the country found openly dozing during public functions before large audiences that he was in fact lost in deep thoughts about the welfare of his countrymen may pass as physical idleness amidst mental work. His claim has apparently bailed him out.

British Philosopher, logician, mathematician, historian, author, social critic, political activist Bertrand Russell (1872-1970), the legendary Nobel Laureate wrote a book titled In Praise of Idleness, published in 1935, which may induce idle persons to feel gratified about their laziness. The learned thinker also tickled those who prided about their being workaholics with his opinion that the time you enjoy wasting is not wasted time. Emphasis is on enjoying, also a mental activity of sorts.

The compulsively idle individuals and also those who are lazy by choice or otherwise, unlike people of the other kind are sure to miss the bliss of a highly needed and deserving vacation. While the employees of governments can avail leave without losing wages for stipulated number of days in a year, those working for corporates are encouraged to take a vacation, specially to recharge their energy bank, obviously for greater productivity and higher profitability of their respective organisations. To expect similar fallout in government establishments is far-fetched, to say the least.

In the foregoing context, a report published in a section of the press recently, based on an online global survey, ranking India as the 5th most vacation deprived country globally due to heavy work schedule is sure to trigger a chuckle in the minds of common people whose image of India's workforce in governments being what it is. The idling staff in government departments may invoke the line: All work and no play made jack a dull boy!

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

When I was eight, in order to encourage thrift my mother gave me a small round clay pot, with gaily painted horizontal stripes. The pot had a slit on top through which coins, or folded notes, could be put in. My daily pocket money was raised from two annas a day to three. Every day, I'd deposit the extra anna into the clay pot, and hear a satisfying chink! as the coin landed on the other coins already there. It was one of the nicest sounds I'd heard. It was the sound of security. I think of that small clay pot quite often now. And the reason is that there is a persistent rumour doing the rounds that the government is planning to pass a law which will enable banks which are saddled with bad debts of making good those debts by taking away the money of depositors, like you and me. It's called a 'bail-in', and the way it's meant to work is that whenever someone like Vijay Mallya does a bunk having defaulted on bank loans, the banks will cover their losses by confiscating your hard-earned savings. The government has gone on record to say that there is no truth in these rumours. But the more the government denies that it is planning any such move, the more such rumours spread. — Jug Suraiya in The Times of India.

Bees swarm highway after accident

The truck driver's dog, which had been riding in the cab was also released during the crash.

Ham flavoured ice cream

New Jersey: An ice cream company in New Jersey has announced the first in its line of "Only in Jersey" flavours — French toast and pork roll. The flavours contain actual caramelised Taylor ham and challah French toast.

Jake Hunt, Managing Partner of Windy Brow Farms, said that he determined that pork roll-only ice cream would be "gross," so he combined it with French toast and maple flavours to make a "really good balance of super sweet and super salty." Hunt said that each two-and-a-half gallon container of the ice cream contains two pounds of actual Taylor ham brand pork roll.

Taylor ham is a processed pork loaf. In Northern New Jersey, it's usually called Taylor ham (after a manufacturer) while in the South of the State it goes by pork roll.

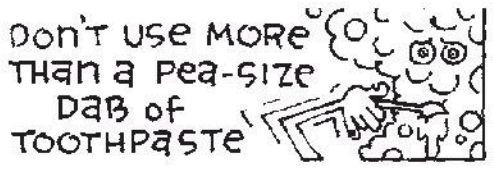
What happens if I brush my teeth too hard?



Your brushing motions should be in gentle circles with the brush pointed at the gum-line, using a soft-bristled brush. Never scrub hard. This can harm the delicate gums where they meet the tooth, causing them to recede. In older individuals, receding gums cannot be reversed, resulting in permanent bone loss.

VOICE OF THE READER

On forgetting while travelling...

Sir,

Reading KBG's Abracadabra (SOM dated Apr. 19 and 20) on how he lost the passports and got it back while on a trip to Chennai to get visas to UK and US revived in me a host of memories of thirty-five-years ago.

I too recall an incident that took place in 1982. My husband had to leave for the US just ten days after our marriage, to join the Master's Programme in Architecture at Ohio State University. As soon as he landed at JFK Airport in New York, he stood before the Immigration only to find that the statement certifying he had enough funds to live in the US was missing. The Immigration Officer, a kind man said, "Sir, please sit down calmly and take your time and search."

In despair, he prayed to Lord Venkateshwara as he could not find it anywhere. His jet lag memory stirred and he quickly took out the little plastic wallet with photos of Lord Balaji and Padmavati that his granny had given him before leaving. There tucked into the back of the picture of Lord Balaji was the document he was searching for !

In fiction there is a classic, in fact one of the best stories ever written by that master-craftsman of plot and precision P.G. Wodehouse. It is about a phrase that the main character forgets, being an extremely vague and woolly-headed man, losing it from his memory creates any amount of trouble for him.

This reminds me of another incident when my husband and I were in Paris on a holiday. As it was time to leave, we took the airport shuttle bus from the centre of the town to reach Charles De Gaulle Airport. We unloaded the luggage and were moving towards the airport when we remembered that we had one small suitcase loaded onto the roof of the bus. The husband, to my utter surprise, with his presence of mind, darted round the track, at least 400 metres, shouting and waving all the while as I stood looking at him in awe. The bus driver, hearing him, stopped and we were able to recover our suitcase. Of course, if he tries such stunts today, even though he was a 100 metres record holder in college, I doubt he would reach even 10 metres.

Indeed, memory in humans is all important. However, these days as age advances, I find myself recognising faces and forgetting names, opening the fridge and standing there like a dummy, forgetting what I wanted.

KBG's story was a simple one of lost items miraculously found again and the despair that turned to sheer relief.

2018 ELECTION

5 Days to go

Congress High Command will decide on CM: Kharge

Senior leader Mallikarjuna Kharge campaigning for K.R. Constituency Congress candidate M.K. Somashekar and N.R. Constituency candidate Tanveer Sait in city on Sunday. He was accompanied by KEA Chairman B. Siddaraju and others.

Mysuru, May 7 (YDS&DM)- Maintaining that the Congress Chief Ministerial candidate cannot be discussed on streets, Congress leader in the Lok Sabha Mallikarjuna Kharge has said that it is the Congress High Command which will decide the Chief Minister.

Kharge was campaigning for K.R. Constituency Congress candidate M.K. Somashekar at Silk Factory Circle on Manandavadi Road here on Sunday, when an auto-driver among the crowd interrupted Kharge to say that dalits would vote for Congress only if Kharge is made the Chief Minister.

Responding to the crowd, Kharge said that the Congress Party High Command will decide on the Chief Minister.

Continuing, Kharge said Congress was committed to the welfare of dalits and appealed the people to vote for the party.

As Kharge continued his Road Show, a group blocked his campaign vehicle and expressed ire over the unceremonious dropping of V. Sreenivasa Prasad from Siddharamaiah Cabinet.

The group, claiming that Sreenivasa Prasad was the unchallenged leader of Ashokapuram, questioned Kharge's silence when Prasad was dropped from the Cabinet.

But Kharge continued his Road Show and sought votes for M.K. Somashekar.

Earlier, Kharge garlanded Ambedkar's statue in Ambedkar Park of Ashokapuram before taking part in the Road Show.

Later, the senior leader also campaigned for Minister and N.R. Constituency Congress candidate Tanveer Sait in Gandhinagar and nearby areas.

Addressing party workers, Kharge, recalling the incident at Ashokapuram when a group of youths had demanded that he become the CM, said that what was more important was to ensure that Congress policies reached out to the people.

Pointing out that it was important to save Dr. B.R. Ambedkar's Constitution, when there were talks of changing the Constitution by BJP leaders, Mallikarjuna Kharge stressed on the need for the workers to ensure that the Congress retains power in the State.

Alleging that N.R. SDPI candidate was using Chief Minister Siddharamaiah's photograph to seek votes, the senior Congress leader appealed the electorate to cast their votes in favour of the party candidate Tanveer Sait.

Maintaining that Congress victory in the State will have an impact on the national political scene, he said the May 12 election was all the more important for the Congress as it was a question of saving the Indian Constitution from the communal forces.

Ashokapuram residents questioning Kharge's silence over dropping of Sreenivasa Prasad from the Siddharamaiah Cabinet.

JD(S)-Congress workers clash in Naganahalli

CM Siddharamaiah calls on injured at K.R. Hospital

Mysuru, May 7 (RK&KS)- A clash between JD(S) and Congress workers at Naganahalli in the taluk on Saturday night has left four people injured, who are undergoing treatment at K.R. Hospital here. Chief Minister Siddharamaiah visited the hospital yesterday and enquired the health of the injured.

The injured, speaking to SOM said that on Saturday at about 10.15 pm, they were sitting in the Naganahalli Congress campaign office, when JD(S) workers who were standing in front of the JD(S) office nearby, hurled abuses using foul language and picked up fight. When we questioned their behaviour, they assaulted us with machetes and stick.

They further said that on Saturday morning too, when actor Darshan had come for campaigning, JD(S) workers created problems and alleged that they were assaulted for the same issue.

Meanwhile, Metagalli Inspector Raghavendra Gowda told Star of Mysore that they rushed to Naganahalli on receiving information about the clash and added that by the time they reached the spot, everything was peaceful. But based on the complaint, an assault case has been registered and investigation is going on, he said.

The Inspector further said that the a few people were brought to the Police Station for enquiry and added that they (Police) would trace the culprits soon and take legal action against them. No arrests have been made so far.

Sindhutai's life history touches hearts of children at Chinnara Mela

The wheel-chair bound Sindhutai Sapkal being led to Vanaranga in Rangayana premises — the venue of Chinnara Mela — yesterday. Rangayana Director Bhagirati Bai Kadam is also seen. Picture right shows the 'Mother of Orphans' feeding Chinnara Mela participants.

Mysuru, May 7 (MTY&NNN)- It was an emotional moment at Rangayana as the children participating in Chinnara Mela got to meet a unique individual, who with her loving touch fed them from her own hands (kai tuttu).

The Mother of Orphans Sindhutai Sapkal had come all the way from Maharashtra and interacted with the children after inaugurating Chinnara Natakotsava enacted by the kids, at Rangayana premises and caught everyone's attention.

The organisers of Chinnara Mela had got Sapkal to send the message to the parents of nuclear families how important the presence of a loving and caring grandparents in an household is, especially at a time after liberalisation, globalisation and privatisation when undivided or joint families is no more the norm.

Sindhutai, who had inaugurated the Natakotsava on Saturday, interacted with the children yesterday and also fed them from her own hands. Asked the reason for her giving shelter to 'orphan children' she reminisced, "I was on my way trying to commit suicide due to some family problems. I saw a person who was dying asking for water. I gave him water and he said, 'Because of the water you gave you saved my life.' I decided if just by giving water to a person I can save a life, then I should live to save some more lives."

Recalling another incident that strengthened her resolve to serve the society, Sindhutai said, "I was begging in a train for my livelihood. The ticket examiner came and asked me to get down as I did not have a ticket. After I got down the train, it caught fire accidentally and was completely destroyed. Looking at the horror right in front of my eyes and how I was saved again, I thought God must have willed me to live for a purpose. After that I started giving shelter to orphaned children who were involved in begging."

The children who were listening to Sindhutai with rapt attention were moved to tears by her experiences of how she bounced back from adversities.

Rangayana Jt. Director V.N. Mallikarjunaswamy, Chinnara Mela Camp Director M.S. Krishnaprasad and others were present during the occasion.

Mysuru, May 7(MTY&DM)- With just a few days to go for the crucial May 12 Assembly polls, Union Minister D.V. Sadananda Gowda (DVS) campaigned for BJP candidates of KR, NR and Chamaraja Assembly segments of the city yesterday.

The Union Minister took out a Road Show along with Ramdas in different roads of Aravindnagar and sought votes for Ramdas saying that he (Ramdas) had done a lot for the Constituency as a Minister in the previous BJP Government.

Later Sadananda Gowda, accompanied by NR Constituency party candidate Sandesh Swamy, undertook campaigning in different parts of the Constituency.

Gowda went on a padayatra in Yaraganahalli and areas around Dr. Rajkumar Road and sought votes for the party.

Party leaders Hemant Kumar Gowda, Yashaswini Somashekar and others were present during the campaigning.

Thereafter, Gowda campaigned for Chamaraja Constituency party candidate L. Nagendra by undertaking a padayatra in K.G. Koppal and surrounding areas coming under the Constituency.

CM confident of victories in Chamundeshwari, Varuna

Mysuru, May 7 (RKB&NNN)- Chief Minister Siddharamaiah was in high spirits this morning, as he came out of his residence in T.K. Layout after holding a meeting with the party workers and supporters. The reason was they had expressed confidence of the Congress party's victories in both Chamundeshwari and Varuna Constituencies.

This Joie de vivre he carried while he addressed the media later, even as hundreds of his supporters from both the Constituencies had gathered outside his house since early morning.

Targeting Prime Minister Narendra Modi directly, Siddharamaiah said that it was unbecoming of the country's PM to be talking about 2+1, 3+1 and reducing the level of political campaigning to that of a street brawl.

Quoting Purandara Dasa, the 16th century saint's composition, "Neecha buddhiya bido Nalige," he said there were real issues which the Prime Minister must concentrate than indulging in personal attacks. No Prime Minister before him including the likes of Indira Gandhi or Rajiv Gandhi had spoken like him, he added.

Asked if there was a 3 per cent swing after Modi's speeches in the last leg of the elections towards BJP, he said that it was more of a hype and he was sure that his party would come back to power with a clear majority.

"We are clear, we will win Pucca. I have no tensions. All the Congress workers are happy. When the Captain or Senapathy is happy, then the soldiers also will be happy. Having been in politics for so long, I can understand the pulse of the people," he said.

On being asked about Hublot watch, Siddharamaiah shot back, "What about Modi's dresses. Did I lie that I did not wear the Hublot watch. It was given to me by Dr. Varma, a doctor from Dubai who had produced the purchase bill. He also filed an affidavit in this regard with the Anti Corruption Bureau (ACB). Unlike Modi, I have not lied."

Asked about B.S. Yeddyurappa's claims of 150 plus seats, he said that during the by-election in Gundlupet, the former Chief Minister had said that the by-election results would point to the Assembly elections and the victory will be a clear indicator of BJP's target of Mission 150. But they lost the elections and there is no way they will be able to achieve the target, he ridiculed and said that it was unthinkable that Yeddyurappa could think of tying the hand and legs of voters and asking them to vote.

Commenting on the clash of workers of Congress and JD(S) at Chamundeshwari, he said that it was only those who were losing confidence of victory indulging in such tactics.

After addressing the media, Siddharamaiah drove to Chamarajanagar for campaigning and he will then go to Mandya District and Pandavapura.

Varuna Constituency candidate Dr. Yathindra was also present. Since this is the marriage season, many women workers who are performing the marriage of their children had come to the CM's residence to give the invitation cards.

People had given me five years leave: Ramdas

"My relationship with K.R. Constituency voters is not political, it is emotional"

Mysuru, May 7 (SBD&NNN)- "The relationship between my voters and myself is not just political, it is more an emotional bonding. They had given me five years leave. This time with their blessings I will bounce back to power again. I will garner more votes than in 2008," said former Minister and K.R. Constituency BJP candidate S.A. Ramdas.

Speaking to Star of Mysore, while he was canvassing in the Constituency's 6th Ward, Ramdas said that the people here had always treated him as one of their own who is contesting an election and not as a politician who is one among them.

"When I go seeking votes, they invite me inside their homes, perform puja and give me prasada. 87-year-old Shantamma who has lost her son, treats me like her own son, advises me not to falter and blesses me. Similarly,108-year-old Sampath Iyengar notices me passing his house, calls me back and says that his health is deteriorating. He says that he would vote for me, see that I win and occupy a high position and blesses me," he said.

He also advised me to distribute guides to tenth standard students and fight for reduced admission fees in schools. Hence, when I come across such people who talk to me freely, offer suggestions and want me to do well, my heart is filled with joy, he said.

People in the Constituency remember my contributions as a Minister. I introduced generic medicines, under the borewell-less scheme, I was instrumental in getting 24X7 Kabini water to houses in Kuvempunagar, Vivekanandanagar, Ramakrishnanagar and other layouts and distributed 8,600 Ashraya houses which people have not forgotten, he said.

An elderly woman blessing BJP candidate from K.R. Constituency S.A. Ramdas during his door-to-door campaigning in the Constituency.

Besides, many of the development works that happened in the city like Chamaraja Double Road concreting works, roads around Mysore Palace, Kantharaj Urs Road, JLB Road, Jayadeva Hospital, Kidwai Unit, Trauma Centre, Ayurveda Nature Cure Hospital, Ambedkar Bhavan, Babu Jagjivan Ram and Valmiki Bhavans, the place for the new buildings of DC Office at German Press premises, are all contributions of the BJP administration, said Ramdas.

The current MLA M.K. Somashekar, who during his five year tenure and with CM Siddharamaiah's help could have done so much for the Constituency, but he has failed the people. They now realise how much work I had done and what is his contribution in the last five years, he said.

Five years leave: The people of the Constituency had sanctioned me five years leave. However, I have done a lot of work in spite of not being politically active. I have worked hard for the welfare of the unorganised workers under the banner of Bharat Informal Workers Institute, he said.

Driving Licenses have not been issued to many auto drivers as they have not passed SSLC and this includes more than 67 lakh in the country. Once the President gives assent, the Driving Licenses will be issued freely as a Centre's programme, he added.

Nearly 200 HIV infected children have been adopted and with the association of Germans and a few other organisations, they are being treated using Indian method of treatments and the infection rate among children is coming down considerably, Ramdas said and expressed confidence of winning with the people's blessings this time.

Congress challenges rejection of Impeachment Move against CJI

New Delhi, May 7- The Congress has challenged in the Supreme Court the rejection of its Impeachment Move against Chief Justice of India (CJI) Dipak Misra.

The decision of Vice-President Venkaiah Naidu is "illegal and arbitrary", says a petition by two Congress Parliamentarians.

"None of the reasons given by the Chairman (Venkaiah Naidu)... carry any weight or are legally tenable. It deserves to be set aside for being wholly extraneous and ultra vires to the provisions of the Constitution and the Inquiry Act," says the petition.

Last month, a petition signed by over 60 Parliamentarians called for Justice Misra's Impeachment six months before he retires. The motion "doesn't deserve to be admitted," Naidu said, just three days later.

The Opposition backed its demand listing five grounds, which, the Congress said, equals misbehaviour. These included the assigning of sensitive cases to handpicked Judges, which was raised publicly in January by four top Judges who accused the CJI of abusing his position as "master of the roster."

"We cannot allow any of our pillars of governance to be weakened by any thought, word or action," said Naidu, ascribing his quick decision to the severity of the charges directed at the Chief Justice.

Congress leader and senior lawyer Kapil Sibal, who was also a signatory to the Impeachment notice, raised the case for urgent listing before a bench headed by Justice Jasti Chelameswar, the second most senior Judge after the Chief Justice and one of the four top judges who went public with his criticism of the way high-profile or sensitive cases are assigned by the Chief Justice.

The Judges said the petition should be taken up before the Chief Justice of India and cited a Constitution Bench judgment on the powers of the top Judge as master of the roster.

Sibal said he was aware of the Constitution Bench judgment but pointed out that the Impeachment notice concerns the Chief Justice. "I am aware of the procedure but it can't be mentioned anywhere else. A person cannot be a judge in his own cause. I am just asking for urgent listing and not seeking any interim relief," Sibal said.

Creating Fortunes

A good Feng Shui enhance prosperity and wealth energy can be achieved by primarily having the home and business free of clutter. Further empowering the place can be done by displaying auspicious symbols that speak of wealth and using specific aroma, crystals, essential oils and water features that raise the Feng Shui energy.

Feng Shui essentially revolves around harnessing the natural forces of Chi to promote prosperity, success and harmony in any environment. As we spend so much time in our workplaces, not only do they affect our careers and finances, but also influence virtually all areas of our lives.

The ancient Chinese philosophy of Feng Shui dictates that people can harness the natural forces of nature (or Chi) to promote prosperity, success, health and harmony in any environment if they are able to tune their surroundings and the living environment.

Adapting the right décor with the right elements is the key to activating prosperity luck through Feng Shui. The science of Feng Shui attaches a lot of significance to the balance of the five elements in nature. Out of the five elements, the element Metal signifies both wealth and protection. Enhancing the Metal energy in a place of work or home will support the efforts of hard work and in turn reward the occupants. However, one should be careful so that these Metals do not have sharp or pointed edges.

Applying the principles of Feng Shui in an office helps in balancing the occupants own energy and attracts the right business partners, acquaintances, finances and career opportunities.

In fact, Colour is an important part of Feng Shui especially to enhance wealth through Feng Shui. Having accents of colours like green and purple in specific areas of home and office will be beneficial. Green is the colour for vitality and growth while purple is the colour for wealth.

Prosperity in life is not always determined by the amount of money one has, but it is dependent on how one learns to enjoy whatever the person has in his or her life. Hence utilising the available furniture and décor one can transform the home or office to vibrate with good energy to attract wealth luck.

The following Feng Shui improvements will create balance and prosperity:

• Place Crystals in the South sector as they are said to be extremely powerful energisers for wealth, success and fame.

• Placing crystals on your window sills and red candles on the south corner of your desk will highlight your business acumen.

• Display 8 pieces of jade or 8 Chinese coins in the office work area or on the desk. Eight is the number of business and financial stability and it also represents the unity of heaven and earth, which are auspicious for career luck.

• Displaying a figurine or painting of the deer symbolises the wish for the organisation to prosper and grow.

• Displaying a fish figurine at North of the home or office enhances career luck and ushers in wealth prosperity.

Following the difficult birth of daughter Alexis Olympia, which left the American star fearing she might die after developing blood clots, Serena has played only two singles tournaments. The 36-year-old lost to her sister Venus in the last 32 at Indian Wells and was beaten by Naomi Osaka in the first round in Miami.

The WTA provides players returning from injury lay-offs or pregnancy with a 'protected ranking' that can be used to enter tourneys, but not for seeding. Players can enter 8 events using the ranking they had when they left, including two Grand Slams.

But players who hold the protected ranking for any reason, on both the men's and women's tours, can't be seeded even if their protected ranking merits it.

Despite her difficult return to action, Serena is registered on the entry list for the French Open in June, with Wimbledon scheduled to get underway one month later. Serena, whose last Grand Slam appearance was her victorious 2017 Australian Open campaign, would have a good case to be seeded at both the French Open and especially Wimbledon, given her remarkable record on the All England Club lawns.

Rahul shines in Kings XI Punjab's win over Rajasthan Royals

Indore, May 7- K.L. Rahul smashed a classy unbeaten half-century after young off-spinner Mujeeb Ur Rahman's exploits with the ball to guide Kings XI Punjab (KXIP) to a comfortable six wicket win over laggards Rajasthan Royals (RR) in an IPL match yesterday.

Chasing a modest 153 run target, Rahul anchored Kings XI's innings from start to finish, scoring 84 off just 54 balls with the help of seven boundaries and three sixes to guide his side home with eight balls to spare.

Kings XI's chase, however, started on a bad note as they lost dangerous Chris Gayle (8) and Mayank Agarwal (2) in successive overs.

While Gayle cut Jofra Archer straight to Sanju Samson at point in the fourth over, Agarwal pulled a short delivery from Ben Stokes to Rahul Tripathi at long leg.

Then Rahul and Karun Nair (31) shared a 50-run stand for the third wicket off just 37 balls to stabilise Kings XI's chase before the latter dragged Anureet Singh's short delivery back onto his stumps as Kings XI were reduced to 79 for three.

Axar Patel (4) too didn't last long as he lofted Ksishnappa Gowtham straight to D'Arcy Shot at deep midwicket.

But Rahul went about his business calmly and guided Kings XI's chase by holding on to the fort from one side. Rahul brought up his fifty in the 17th over with an upper cut six off Archer to bring down the equation to 27 runs off 18 balls.

Rahul and Marcus Stoinis (23 not out) shared unconquered 68 runs for the fifth wicket to comfortably take Kings XI past the winning margin and enable their side climb up to the third spot in the points table.

Earlier, Mujeeb led an impressive bowling display from Kings XI to restrict struggling Rajasthan to a modest 152 for nine. Mujeeb (3/27) struck in the first two deliveries of the 15th over, first removing dangerous -looking Buttler and then Archer to stand in with a chance of registering a hat-trick. But it didn't come as he bowled a wide delivery in the next ball.

However, Mujeeb's exploits were enough to keep Rajasthan in check as Kings XI kept on losing wickets at regular intervals from the start after being sent into bat. Besides Mujeeb, Andrew Tye (2/24), Axar Patel (1/21), skipper Ravichandran Ashwin (1/30) and Ankit Rajpoot (1/37) were the other wicket-takers for Kings XI.

Mujeeb Ur Rehman was chosen as the Player of the match for his splendid bowling.

Mumbai Indians beat Kolkata Knight Riders

Suryakumar Yadav's successive half century and an all-round performance from Hardik Pandya powered Mumbai Indians (MI) to a 13-run win over Kolkata Knight Riders (KKR), keeping them in play-offs contention in the IPL.

Yadav (59 off 39) continued his rich run with a fourth fifty of the tournament before Pandya (35* off 20) plundered the KKR attack to nudge the hosts to 181 for four. Yadav's opening partner Evin Lewis (45 off 28) too made a valuable contribution in the 91-run stand.

KKR skipper Dinesh Karthik (36* off 26) tried his best to get his team over the line but was unable to after the visitors needed 60 runs off the last 30 balls.

By the final over, KKR needed 23 runs and Krunal Pandya defended them comfortably with the innings ending at 168 for six. Robin Uthappa's (54 off 35) first fifty plus score of the competition also went in vain.

It was another much needed win for slow starters Mumbai, who had beaten KXIP on Friday. They remain in fifth spot in the standings with eight points, having earned their fourth win in 10 games.

KKR, on the other hand, remain in the top-four with 10 points after their fifth loss in 10 matches.

Hardik Pandya was chosen as the Player of the Match.

Many firsts introduced in Karnataka Assembly Elections this time

Mysuru, May 7 (RK&NNN)- It is just five days before the election to the 15th Assembly in Karnataka. The District Administration and SVEEP (Systematic Voters' Education and Electoral Participation) Committee are fully geared up to conduct the elections in the District's 11 constituencies.

There are many firsts introduced in this election by the Election Commission of India (ECI). This is for the first time that the SVEEP officials will reach the voters slips to the voter's houses by Sunday evening. It is also the first time that voters guide in Kannada, which explains the DOs and DON'Ts will be given to the voters, said Deputy Commissioner and District Electoral Officer Abhiram G. Sankar.

He was addressing a press conference here recently at the DC's Office and said that apart from the above mentioned firsts, the others are 24 Pink booths for women only, three Physically Weaker and Disabled (PWD) booths manned by the Physically Challenged and four Ethnic booths in tribal Haadis.

Rs.1.14 crore worth cash, liquor, vehicles seized: A total of Rs. 1.14 crore worth cash, liquor, vehicles and nearly Rs. 8.42 crore worth household articles have been recovered from the time Model Code of Conduct was announced on Mar.27.

The Excise Department has conducted 1,408 raids, arrested 293 persons and registered 528 cases. 39,777 litre liquor worth Rs. 58.42 lakh and 56 vehicles have been seized and the total worth is Rs.91.80 lakh, he said.

From the time Model Code of Conduct came into force, 73 complaints have been received for Poll code violations out of which 70 FIRs have been registered against the violators. In H.D. Kote taluk, ornaments resembling gold have been recovered. So far 171 different types of vehicles have been seized, he said.

Election details: In all, 2,860 polling booths including 173 auxiliary ones have been set up in Mysuru district. There are 12.51 lakh men, 12.41 lakh women and 189 other voters in the district. Varuna constituency with 23 candidates records the highest number in the fray, while H.D. Kote with only seven contesting, records the lowest in the district.

There are 150 Static Surveillance and 95 flying squads fitted with GPS working in the field. A complaint room has been set up at the District Office and in case of any complaint, the flying squad will reach the spot in 20 minutes.

A total of 16,541 staff have been deployed for the May 12 election. The training for them was held on weekends. The EVMs and VVPATs have been randomised. There are 382 critical booths in rural areas and 250 in Mysuru city. Chamundeshwari, Varuna and T. Narasipur have been classified as Expenditure Sensitive Constituencies. There will be web-casting in 150 polling booths, said Sankar.

The four tribal haadis where Ethnic booths in a hut form will be set up are in, Girijana Ashrama Shale, Basavanagiri in H.D. Kote taluk, Government Higher Primary School, Ane Male in D.B. Kuppe of H.D. Kote taluk, Girijana Ashrama Shale in Nagapura of Hunsur Taluk and Girijana Ashrama Shale in Mutturu Colony of Periyapatna Taluk.

The election officials manning the booth will be in the traditional gear, wearing Mysuru Peta, shalu and panche, thus trying to attract the tribals to the voting booths. The three PWD booths being set up are at Haniyangamballi in Varuna Constituency, Shiramalli of Nanjangud and PU College in Shivapura, he said.

In the 2,687 polling stations, there will also be Voters Welfare Officers named to check for water, electricity and toilet facilities, he said.

Voting timing: Voting on May 12 begins at 7 am and ends at 6 pm. Those who are in the queue before 6 pm will be given tokens and they can cast their votes. Anyone coming after 6 pm will not be allowed to vote.

The public campaign by the political parties and candidates will stop 48 hours before the polling date and that is on May 10 evening, said Sankar.

WORD OF THE DAY

Feint

Pronunciation: Feynt (Noun).

Meaning: A movement made in order to deceive an adversary; an attack aimed at one place or point merely as a distraction from the real place or point of attack: military feints; the feints of a skilled fencer.

Origin: The English noun feint comes from Old French feinte, a noun use of the feminine past participle of the verb feindre "to feign, pretend, dissemble." The Old French verb comes from Latin fingere "to shape, form, fashion," the ultimate source of English faint, fiction, figment, and effigy. Feint entered English in the 17th century.

THE ODD WORD

Deipnosophist

A person skilled in the art of dining and dinner-table conversation.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

The tail wagging the dog

Meaning: An item of minor importance dominating a situation.

Origin: This expression probably originated in the USA. There isn't a specific incident that it refers to that can be located there but there are many instances of it in print in US publications from the 1870s onwards, whereas there are none that come from any other country until well into the 20th century. The earliest citation that I can find is from The Daily Republican, April 1872: "Calling to mind Lord Dundreary's conundrum, the Baltimore American thinks that for the Cincinnati Convention to control the Democratic Party would be the tail wagging the dog."

Dundreary is a character of Tom Taylor's play Our American Cousin. He was an amiable but dim nobleman, who frequently coined nonsensical riddles and twisted metaphors. These 'Dundrearyisms' were similar to Malapropisms and were briefly in vogue amongst US theatre-going circles in the 1850s; for example, 'a stitch in time never boils', 'better late than sorry'.

That Dundreary association leads nicely on to a witticism made by S. J. Perelman, the US humorist. He twisted the phrase after reporting his escape from the attentions of a group of prostitutes - 'It was a case of the tail dogging the wag'.
